Dear Mr Shaw

Objection to an application for registration

Thank you for your correspondence received by the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) on 8 April 2016, objecting to the registration of Derryn Hinch's Justice Party.

Under section 132(2)(b) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 an objection to an application can be made on the following grounds:

- the party does not meet the eligibility criteria for registration
- the party's application has not been correctly made
- the party's name is prohibited.

As your submission has not been made under these grounds it is not considered a valid objection.

If you have any queries relating to this matter please contact the AEC on 02 6271 4552 or by email to fad@aec.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
